GFC PARTICIPATION

FAME Panel Discussions: The Gauteng Film Commission will be stifiy participating at Fame Week Africa this year beginning on the 2nd of September where the Acting Executive Head: Partnerships, Industry, and Special Projects (PISP), Strategy Planning, Strategic Support and M&E manager, Mr Mak Mogoba, will participate in panel discussions in the highly insightful, “The Economy of the Location” sparking engaging conversation and providing a deep dive into exploring the future job creation, revenue, and related infrastructure development on film and television sets to provide immediate boosts to the local economy.

The GFC's Unit coordinator, Ms Nthabeleng Phora will also participate in a myriad of panel discussions beginning with one entitled, “The Role of Film Festivals in Promoting African Content” on the 3rd of September, analysing how film festivals in Africa can promote culture and heritage and enable people to see themselves represented onscreen and act as an important stepping stone for independent films, providing them with the exposure needed to be shown in commercial cinemas or on streaming platforms.
